

Euphorbia

Eritrea

This beautiful, very large single trunked large deep green, Eritrea Emerald is tall and dramatic in appearance with trunk margins sporting sharp spines. This single trunked Euphorbia is perfect for the drought tolerant urban garden, planted away from foot traffic.

Native to dry areas of southern Africa this fascinating and easy to care for succulent adds great statement to a room. Due to the toxicity and irritant nature of the milky sap contained within the stems: handle with care.

